Palm Sunday, March 24, 9:00 AM in the Sanctuary

Join us for our Palm Sunday Service on March 24, 9:00 AM in the Sanctuary. At the beginning of Holy Week, Palm Sunday celebrates Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem as the crowds cheered and laid palm branches down before him. It is the beginning of a week that changed the world.

Good Friday, March 29, 6:00 PM in the Sanctuary

St. Peter's Good Friday service will be lead by St. Peter's Chancel Choir with the presentation of Tenebrae – A Service of Darkness by Hal. H. Hopson. The Service of Tenebrae follows a tradition of the church dating back to the eighth century. From Latin, the word Tenebrae means "darkness" and commemorates the final hours of Jesus' life on earth. This will be a service of meaning and reflection as we come face to face with the enormous sacrifice that was made on our behalf.
